

CORRESPONDENCE.

Minden Murmurings.

Merry Christmas and happy new Year.

We have better sleighing in Minden than you have in Brockway Centre.

Mr Arthur Sleeper a young Lawyer of our town was married on Friday evening too, I don't know who.

The oyster supper and Christmas trees at McKays hall on Saturday evening was a grand success. They realized about $30 from the oyster supper, with which they will purchase a library for the Sunday school.

Mr York has brought his wife and children to Minden. His wife is in delicate health.

Rev Mr Vertican of the United Presbyterian church of Bad Axe, and Rev Bettis exchanged pulpits last Sabbath.

Rev Paul DesJardins was in Minden on Saturday visiting his sister Mrs Jas White. He returns to Albion College on the third, where he is finishing his course of study.

A good interest was shown at the Ministerial meeting in Port Hope, for Port Huron Dist, on Monday, Tuesday Wednesday of last week. Able addresses were given by Presiding Elder Potter, Rev Thos Stalker, of Port Huron, Dr Lucas of Lexington.

We ate our Christmas dinner in White Rock and it was splendid.

Sermon.

Forgo Gleanings.

Christians is past and the world still moves.

We are obliged to report another death this week. Mrs Isaac Hutcheson died very suddenly last Thursday morning and was buried Saturday, in the Brockway Cemetery. Rev C. B. Clark officiating. They were married only about eleven months. Mr H. has the sympathy of the whole community in his sad affliction.

The thaw has spoiled our sleighing.

Ed Dodge is home from the woods on a visit. He will return soon.

The mill company have shut down the grist mill and are running the saw this winter.

Jas Gardner was brought home from the lumber woods dead, last week. He went to bed well and in less than 20 minutes he was found dead. Heart disease was the cause.

Another funeral to-day (Thursday.) Hugh Todd, aged 14 years, died of brain fever. He was an orphan boy and lived with Mr McKenzie, of Kenosha, and was loved by all who knew him.

There was a wedding party in town Christmas. Mr Tucker to Miss Jennie Dodge. They took dinner and supper at David Watson's and a number of young ladies went to serenade Miss Jennie and the young men went and oh my how they did hoop it up to Mr Tucker but they could not get him out to treat them and so they retired crest-fallen. Boys have more courage next time.

Mr McArthur, I wish you a happy New Year. [Ed—Same to you, Madoc, and many of them.]

Monoc.

"Home Calenders" for 1883 just arrived. Call and get one at Jaffes Brown's store.

James McArthur the popular clerk in Holden Bros store is yet slightly under the weather.

A request from "Many Subscribers" in Brockway, to publish an article sent from that place, and published in the Post-Gleaner than, was received, but too late for this issue.

The Detroit Evening News, says the New York Herald, will pay Bennett a dividend of $50,000, just a little less than the proprietor of the Express got—laying aside the three round $'s at the end.

A Wakefield paper announces the illness of its editor, possibly adding: "All good saying subscribers are requested to mention him in their prayers. The others need not, as the prayers of the wicked avail nothing."

Many good resolutions are usually formed at this time of the year, and 563 resolutions by saying, "Well, I'll turn over a new leaf at the New Year." All right, but when the dust of the year has settled, one dollar will give you many leaves to turn over during the next 12 months, better it will be the best.

its proprietor. We wish all our patrons a Happy New Year, with abundance of good cheer.

Bills are being distributed all over the United States, offering $1,000 for information that will show the whereabouts of one Henry Rich, of New York, who was last seen in that city, Dec 4. He is 37 years old, bald, 5 1-2 feet high, grey eyes, aquiline nose, thin face, short beard, weighs about 180 pounds, has scar on left side of neck, and has papers on him which will lead to his identification. Address, Mrs H. Rich, 252 East Fifty-third street, New York.

YR ALMAN.—All reports to the contrary notwithstanding. And we expect to live long enough to furnish the people of this vicinity and surrounding country with everything in the line of nursery stock necessary to make a pleasant home and life endurable. Seven year's experience in handling trees enable us to give better stock, better prices, and better satisfaction than any other dealers traveling. Orders by mail promptly answered.

Yours truly,
J. C. BRONSON & BROS.,
Oxford, Mich.

Two Promising Returns.—The oldest paragraphs are born of the queerest utterance at times. Here are two cases in point: First, that of a traveler, who in speaking to an emigrant whom he found to have made his home in a Western wild, said comely: "This isn't a bad country; all it lacks is water and good society"—when quick came the poor emigrant's reply, with some bitter truth and point: "Yes, that's all he lacks." And the other instance is related by Dr Goodell. He congratulated an elderly christian man, a resident of New Haven, that his race was almost over and his battle nearly fought. "Yes, doctor," was the sick man's reply, "I suppose that is so, I am glad, yes, I am glad, yes, I think I am glad, I fear I shall miss New Haven privileges."

Are Your Children Pleading And and cry? Do they have thousand spectacles and crabs and mosquitoes? Beware of Warts. Very few children possess these things. No child can be happy or well while suffering with warts. They sap the very life by preventing the digestion and assimilation of food. There is a sure remedy. It is called Parrot's Ointment. Warts disappear. They are perfectly harmless, but will quickly disappear if you use our Parrot's Ointment. It is sold by C. A. Wells & Co.

The Greatest Pain Killer. Yelland's Compound, Cuts, Sticks in Abscess, Burns, Scalds, Rheumatism, Sprains, Bruises, etc. It is the most powerful and most reliable remedy for all these ailments. It is sold by C. A. Wells & Co.

You can get a trial bottle of Dr. Bennett's Kidney Pills at F. A. Baker's drug store which will convince you that the regular 50 cent size will cure any case of Internal, External or Itching Piles, besides all unpleasant eruptions, Scaly Eruptions, Sores, Itch, Burns, Scalds, and for a general purpose ointment it has no equal. Call for a trial box at once.
